Our Student Support Services Project Team featuring...

Andrew Weatherill, Director

Andrew Weatherill serves as Director of the Student Support Services Project (SSSP) in the Florida Department of Education's (FDOE) Bureau of Exceptional Education and Student Services.

The SSSP exists to develop and promote the implementation of a statewide system of comprehensive, multi-tiered supports for all students across Florida. This includes providing leadership and expertise related to the social, emotional, behavioral, mental and physical health, and safety of all students to engage in effective academic and behavioral instruction and interventions. Before coming to FDOE, Andrew served at the district level as supervisor of school counseling and as a school counselor in the Florida school system.

Andrew earned a Bachelor of Science in Psychology, a Masters of Science with concentration in School Counseling and is currently working towards a Doctorate in Education with concentration in Educational Leadership and Policy. Andrew is married with four children. He played soccer and hockey in high school and college, and enjoys hiking, fishing, kayaking and spending time with his family.
